DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Patten Jr. et al (US 6099652).

Patten Jr. et al disclose a deposition chamber and a substrate support with a recess to hold a substrate and gas inlets into the recess and out lets from the recess (Fig 14 and Col 6 lines 6067) the substrate holder could be rotated (Fig 2 and Col 4 lines 55-60).

Regarding a shape adapted to supply or discharge gas, the inlets and outlets have shape to enable flow of gas. Further regarding the whirl, it is the result of rotation and would be in claimed direction inherently.

3. Claims 1, 8 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Goodman et al (US 6454865).

Goodman et al disclose a deposition chamber and a rotatable (Col 3 lines 13-17) susceptor with a recess to hold a substrate and gas inlets into the recess and out lets from the recess- there are three channels and any of them could be used as supply channel or as discharge channel from the recess (Fig 35).

Regarding a shape adapted to supply or discharge gas, the inlets and outlets have shape to enable flow of gas. Further regarding the whirl, it is the result of rotation and would be in claimed direction inherently.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 2/1/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's arguments related to new claims and added limitations are addressed as above.

Conclusion

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event,

Art Unit: 1763
